Overview

Are solar and wind projects eligible for tax subsidies?

Our Standards: The Thomson Reuters Trust Principles. The U.S. Treasury Department on Friday unveiled stricter rules for how solar and wind projects can qualify for federal tax subsidies that President Donald Trump's new tax and spending law is phasing out over the next two years.

Should wind and solar subsidies be double this year?

According to an analysis by Cornwall Insight, an energy consultancy, subsidies to the developers of wind and solar over the next two years need to be at least double this year's record level if the government is to reach its clean power goal by the end of the decade. The London Times reports:.

Why are governments putting trillions into wind & solar subsidies?

Governments, especially in the West, are pouring trillions into subsidies for wind and solar despite their hidden costs, raising consumer costs and undermining economies.

Do wind and solar projects qualify for a tax credit?

But wind and solar power do not fare well. Projects would only qualify for a federal tax credit worth at least 30 percent of project costs if they finish construction by the end of 2027.
