The Oceania located nation of Kiribati has started construction on the country's largest solar PV project that's backed by the Asian Development Bank and the Government of New Zealand. It will be accompanied by a battery energy storage system (BESS). The 7.5 MW South Tarawa Renewable Energy Project.

The proposed South Tarawa Renewable Energy Project will install solar photovoltaic and battery energy storage system to help the government achieve its renewable energy target for South Tarawa, reduce consumption of diesel fuel for power generation, and help mitigate climate change by avoiding.

Solar PV System: The factory's own rooftop or an adjacent ground-mounted solar array serves as the primary power source, leveraging the region's greatest natural asset—sunlight—to generate clean electricity at a low, predictable cost. Battery Energy Storage System (BESS): Lithium-ion batteries.

If provided by the financial institution, the Early Warning System Team writes a short summary describing the purported development objective of the project and project components. Review the complete project documentation for a detailed description. As stated by the ADB, the proposed project will.
